SOUTH-CAROLINA,

(L. S.)

By the honourable EGERTON LEIGH, Esq; sole Judge of his Majesty's high Court of Vice Admiralty.

EGERTON LEIGH, J. V. A.

WHEREAS a certain libel was on the tenth day of December last exhibited and filed in this court by Samuel Piesfants, and Samuel Rhodes, of the city of Philadelphia, for recovery of certain sums of money borrowed by one William Earl of Rhode-Island, on the bottom of certain sloop called the Industry, her tackle, furniture and apparel, which said William Earl is sole owner of the said sloop.

AND WHEREAS in support of the actors demand an exemplification of the original bill of bottomry, from some public office in Philadelphia was produced, but unaccompanied with any evidence of a subsisting debt, notwithstanding the said libellers did, by their libel, aver, that the debt sued for is unsatisfied, and that no part thereof is paid, and it appearing to me that the proofs in this cause were insufficient in law for me to decree a condemnation and sale of the said vessel; I did therefore, on mature deliberation, interlocutorily order and adjudge, that the said vessel should remain in the charge and custody of the marshal of this court, and that the libellers shall transmit the original bill of bottomry, or give due proof that the debt demanded is still subsisting and unsatisfied; and also, that the said William Earl, the owner, shall have notice to come in and contest the Merits of the actors libel.

THESE ARE THEREFORE to cite and admonish the said William Earl, the owner of the said sloop Industry, to be, and appear before me, at the usual place of judicature, in Charles-Town, within three calendar months from the date hereof, to shew cause, (if any they have) why the said vessel should not be condemned agreeable to the prayer of the actors libel.
